

Wine Spectator

Navarro Reviews from 2008

2007 Rosé, Mendocino- 88 points and Top Value of 2008

“A delicate but lovely rosé, with a pretty pink hue and cherry blossom aromas accented by strawberry and spice and crisp but supple smoky flavors. Grenache and Carignane. Drink now.” –TF

2005 Zinfandel, Mendocino- 88 points

“Lively, exhibiting black cherry, roasted herb and licorice aromas, with tart, appealingly rustic huckleberry and spice flavors. Drink now through 2012.” –TF

2006 Cluster Select Late Harvest White Riesling, Anderson Valley- 88 points

“Rich and luscious, showing floral honey and spicy golden raisin aromas, with succulent, sweet pineapple and cinnamon flavors that are balanced with a hint of acidity. Drink now”. –TF

2007 Sauvignon Blanc, Mendocino- 87 points

“Light-bodied, with zingy citrus, fennel and peach flavors and mouthwatering acidity. Finishes with a tropical fruit and passion fruit note. Drink now. “ –MW

2006 White Riesling, Anderson Valley- 87 points

“Crisp and pretty, with honeysuckle and white peach aromas and supple Asian pear and spicy mineral flavors. Drink now.” –TF

2005 Pinot Noir Anderson Valley Méthode à l'Ancienne- 85 points

“Medium-bodied, offering a subtle mix of herb, dried cherry, berry and fresh earth notes. Drink now through 2010.” –JL