

Best Buys of 2008

By the Editors of Wine Enthusiast Magazine

November 2008

89 POINTS- Tomero 2007 Torrontes (Salta, Argentina)

Tomero is a new line from the Carlos Pulenta group, and this one sings the tale of Salta with sincerity. You get telling acacia and lychee aromas, but none of the cheap perfume that can sometimes ruin the variety. The palate is lightly oily but linear, while the papaya, citrus and melon flavors just roll along. Imported by San Francisco Wine Exchange. —M.S.

Tomero