ANDELUNA
C E L L A R S

Hugely attractive and impressive wine with several seams of aromas and flavors. Graphite, minerals and coffee beans on the nose, while the palate really holds the attention as well, with lifted floral notes, pepper, spice and plums. Lots of character here.

From 60 year old vines, this shows a roundness and depth not always associated with the grape. Pretty but intense lavender and elderflower notes form the nose, with peachy hints in there as well. The palate possesses fine concentration, with crisp mineral seams and lovely length.
