BUYING GUIDE

91 Aneluna 2004 Pasionado (Uco Valley); $55.
Aneluna's top wines tend to be ripe and plump, and so they come across as easy to drink and less demanding. This blend of Malbec, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Cabernet Franc is devoid of astringency and hard tannins. It's ripe, just a little rugged, and integrated such that the berry flavors are forward and don't need to fight to be appreciated. Imported by San Francisco Wine Exchange.
