Appellation

Our Central Coast Petite Sirah is selected from vineyards primarily in the southern parts of Monterey County, as well as parts of Paso Robles. The climate in this area is warm enough to ripen the fruit but not so hot as to cause it to lose its bright fruity characteristics. We are able to capture the inherent blue and red berry aromas of this noble grape by controlling the temperature during fermentation.

Nose

This wine has intense fruity aromas of raspberry and blueberry evident by its rich color in the glass. Full, dense and fleshy texture with a long velvety finish.

Palate

Firm and food friendly tannins with blueberries, cassis, plums and notes of cloves
