The 2010 Grand Harvest Awards is the only wine-judging event in North America that is based on terroir. Judges taste wines with other wines of the same appellation. Thus, with cross-regional competition removed, the inherent quality of wines can be seen without the influences that sometimes eclipse even a wine of very high quality.

Navarro Vineyards' four gold medals were awarded for the Anderson Valley AVA within Mendocino County. The judges noted that white wines from this appellation showed "floral notes, tropical fruit and honeysuckle on the nose, with bright lime zest, lemon, stonefruit, banana, melon and guava flavors...the tropical fruit essence remained consistent from the aromas to the finish."
