WINE ENTHUSIAST
MAGAZINE

94 points - "A gorgeous Cab, rich and complex, that perfectly shows the deep, strong tannins and impeccable structure of Spring Mountain, and Mayacamas Cabs in general. Perfectly ripe in black currants and tobacco, with exotic cedar and mineral overtones, it's beautiful now despite the tannins, but has the balanced stuffing to age effortlessly for a decade."
-Wine Enthusiast, November 1, 2008

89 points - "Broad, dense, rich and concentrated, showing loamy earth, dried currant, berry, sage and mineral, with shades of cedary oak and spice. This has flavors that coat the palate and firm, dry tannins on the finish."

MAGAZINE

93 points— "...where ocean mist and mountain air create the tart, bosky blackberry flavors of this wine. With austere tannins powering the structure, strengthening in the finish to a black mineral edge..."
